

CHEF DE MISSION PERSPECTIVE

Lotte Langhoff, Denmark

- Partner at Multidisciplinary clinic
- Graduated in 2005
- FICS ICSSP in 2005
- First World Games in 2005
- 2010 Post Graduated Diploma Sports Chiropractic Medicine

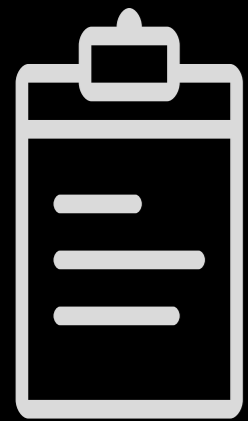

FICS EXPERIENCE

- Four World Games
- Two World Sports Games
- Asian Indoor and Martial Arts Games
- Various World Cups and other national and international championships

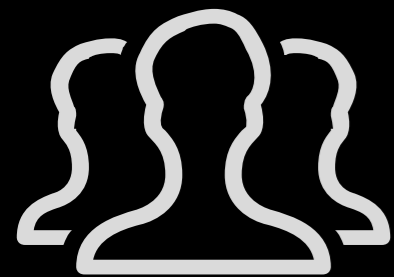

PURPOSE OF THIS TALK

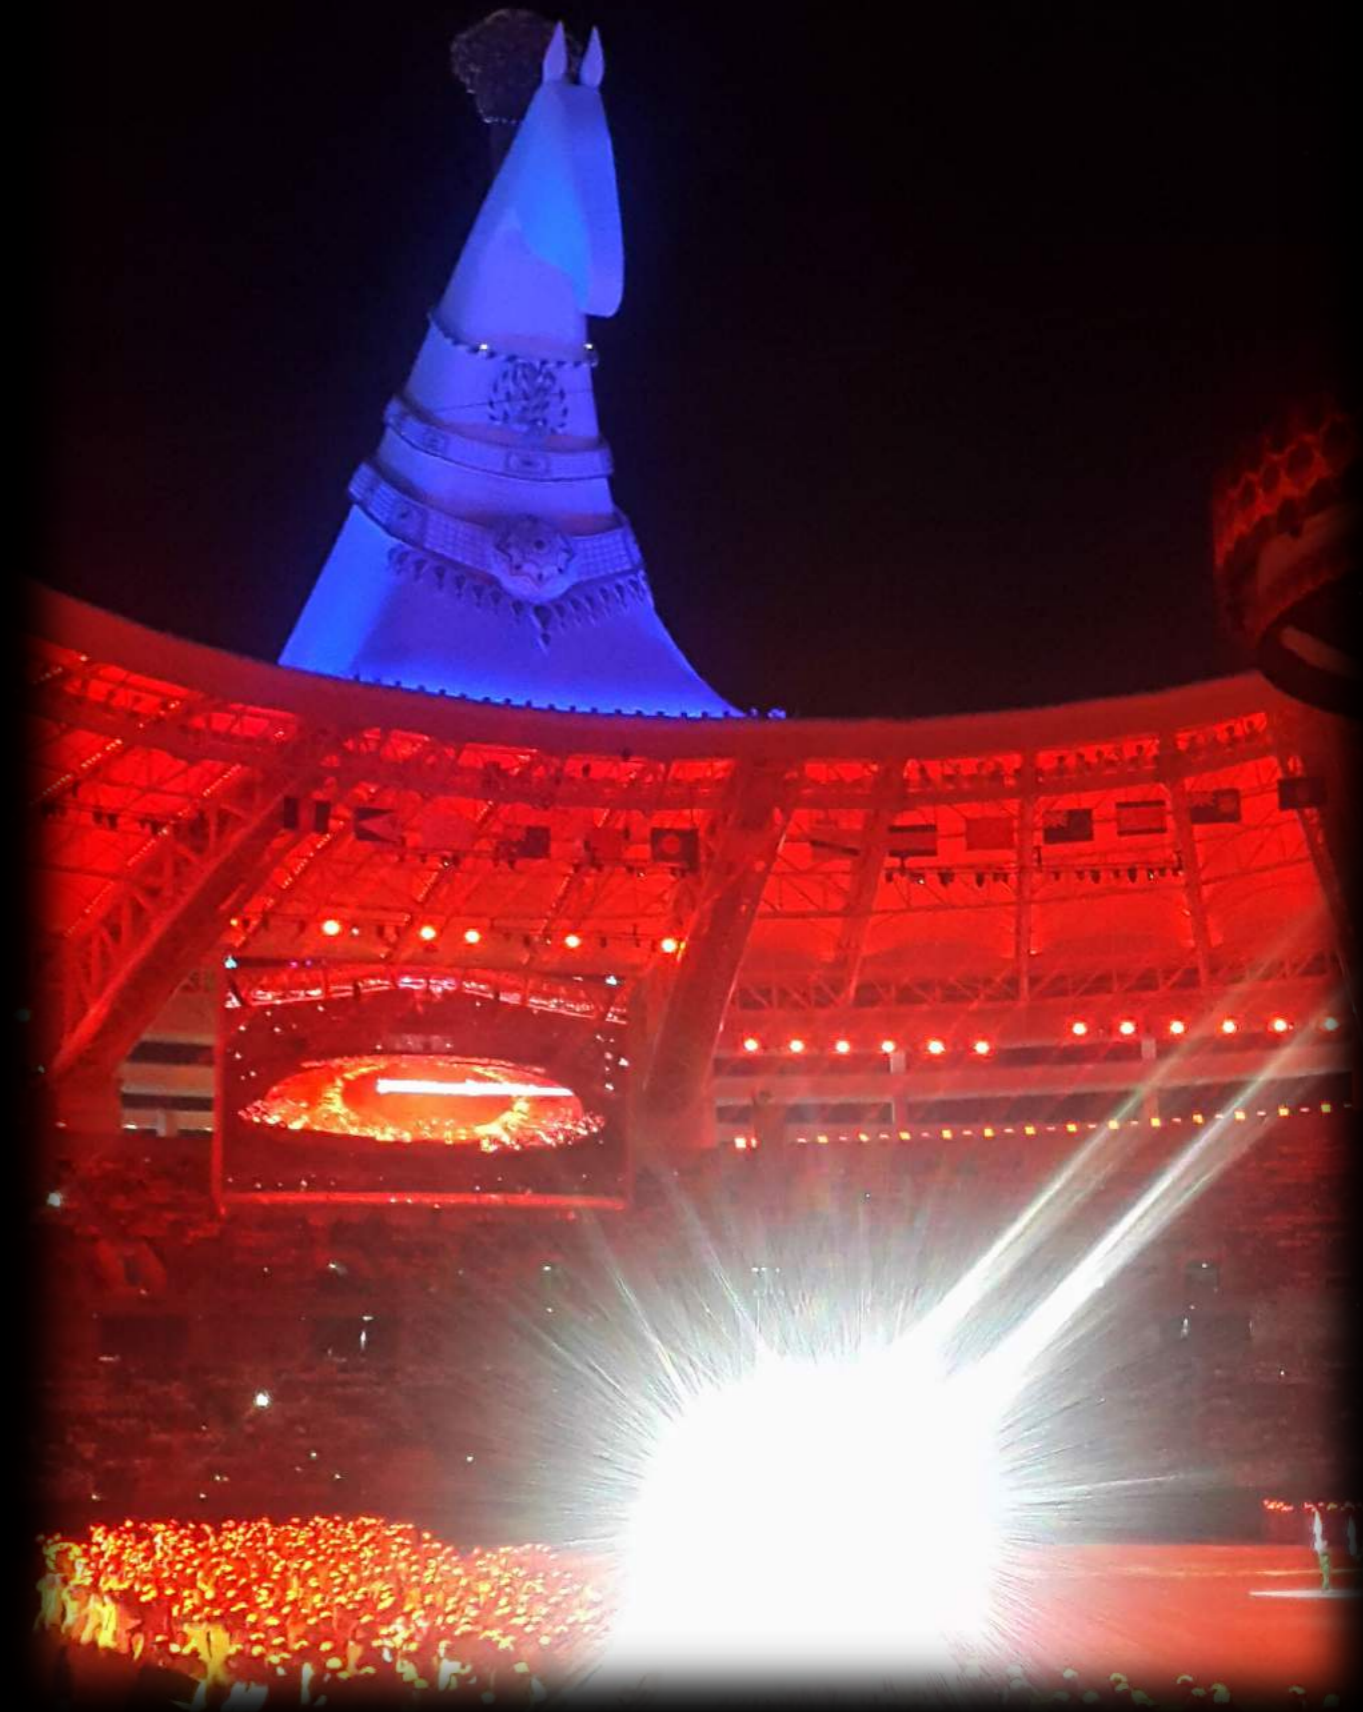

Games seen from the Chef de Missions perspective

What is needed to make the games a success for all involved.

The team, communications, transport, schedules, attitude, collaboration

THE TEAM

Chiropractors at any level of experience

Students and researchers

THE TEAM

Other medical staff,
team chiropractors,
EMTs, physiotherapists,
medical doctors

Everyone is equally important and we must
work together!

No Self Promotion!

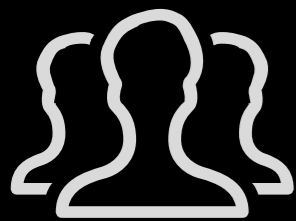

COMMUNICATIONS

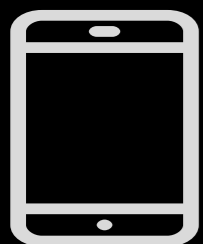

Absolutely vital aspect to the success of any Games

WhatsApp, Facebook etc.

Meetings, emails, handouts

Phones/texts

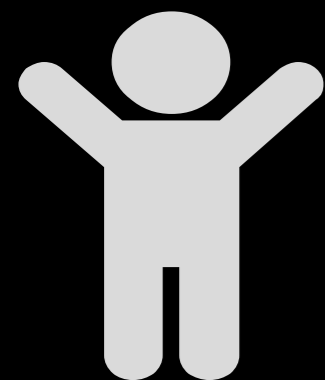

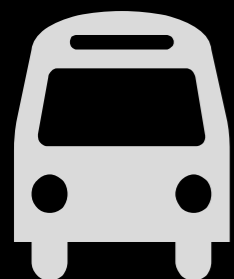

Be ready for changes!

Don't be Late

Local busses/taxies
hired drives
private car
on foot
on bicycle etc.

Massive logistic challenge

Be ready for changes!

TRANSPORT

Don't be Late

The foundation for success

- Meetings, meals, transport
- Be at venues on time

Be ready for changes!

SCHEDULES

Don't be Late

Stay positive and be professional at all times

Talk to the Chef de Mission if you have problems

Games can be frustrating, But most of all fun!

ATTITUDE

COLLABORATION

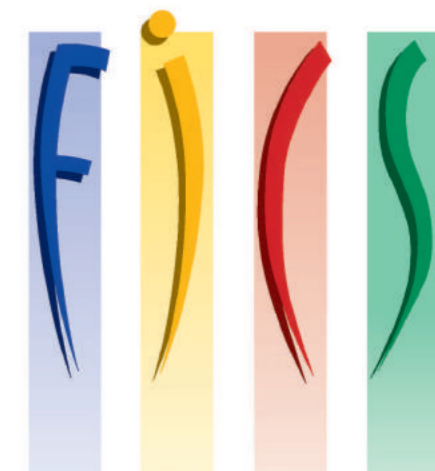

- Work together
- We are there for the athletes
- Cooperate with other health care professionals
- Cooperate with staff at venues
- Refer to Chef de Mission if needed

WHY GET A SPORTS CHIROPRACTIC CERTIFICATE?

- Games are fun!
- Meet new and old friends
- Work in new sports
- Gain experience
- Travel to new places

@ 2020 - Fédération Internationale de Chiropratique du Sport

FEDERATION INTERNATIONALE
DE CHIROPRACTIQUE DU SPORT