

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST APPLYING FOR A FICS EVENT

The FICS Games Commission would like to thank you for your dedication to the FICS organization in providing outstanding care to the athletes we serve around the globe. It is heart-warming to see the positive outcomes we have achieved for the athletes and to ensure sports chiropractic remains a critical part of the international sports care team. Our efforts must remain consistent and vigilant to cultivate our position in providing athletes equal opportunity in our specialist care. Please join your colleagues in perfecting your skills, advancing your knowledge and giving back to your profession by volunteering for the following events. Come join us in sharing your gifts of healing with the world.

All events can be found on the FICS website along with an EOI form which we look forward to receiving back from you. As of 31 March 2020, all team members must have their ICSC to partake in a World Championship or International Federation sanctioned event (Gold Tier events). For (Bronze or Silver Tier) events you need to be registered for and working towards your ICSC. If you have not yet started or been awarded your ICSC certificate, contact our administrator at admin@ficsport.org for assistance.

We look forward to you joining us for the first time and seeing members of our extended family once again. There is currently no stipulation for vaccination. This is a personal choice at this stage which may change at any given time and will always be subject to national and international travel regulations. You will be responsible for ensuring that you have complied with the international travel requirements to and from your country. If the event organizers stipulate the requirement of vaccines for a particular event, you will be notified as soon as we have this information. You should be extremely proud of these accomplishments! Because you are responsible for the continued growth and success of Sports Chiropractic on the world stage.

Further information or questions you may have email the FICS Games team on games@ficsport.org. Members attending games as part of the FICS team are expected to abide by the FICS Terms and conditions. The tiering selection information are related to teams attending international games can be located on the FICS website at <https://fics.sport>

FICS builds relationships with International Sports Organisations throughout the world, offering sports chiropractors the opportunity to treat at elite level of sporting competitions.
