

DR MARTIN ISAKSSON

CHALLENGING CLINICIANS TO FOLLOW THE FASCIAL LINES—NOT CHASE THE PAIN.

A leader within the profession, he was a founding member of the Swedish Chiropractic Sports Council (IKS) and serves as the FICS President from 2022 to the present.

- Operates two multidisciplinary private practices in Sweden, working collaboratively with a broad healthcare team and managing a caseload that includes professional and Olympic-level athletes.
- A sports chiropractor with a strong academic foundation, he is recognised for his commitment to research and evidence-informed practice, continually integrating current science to support better clinical outcomes.
- With a deep interest in sports injury management and the evolving role of chiropractors in athlete care, this focus has shaped an exceptional professional trajectory at the highest levels of sport.
- Chiropractor at the Rio 2016 Olympic Games and has supported athletes across multiple world-level international events.

HE REFRAMES ASSESSMENT AND TREATMENT THROUGH A FASCIAL LENS, ENCOURAGING PRACTITIONERS TO MOVE BEYOND SYMPTOM-DRIVEN CARE AND ADDRESS THE TRUE DRIVERS OF DYSFUNCTION AND PERFORMANCE LIMITATION.
